

Japan: Innovations and Creative Solutions

Japan Studies Association of Canada

2008 Annual Conference

Place: Waterloo, Ontario

Date: 3-5 October 2008

The Japan Studies Association of Canada is the largest organization in the country devoted to academic research and teaching related to Japan. The annual meeting attracts between 70 and 120 scholars and graduate students. The organizers of the 2008 conference welcome proposals from Canadian, Japanese and international academics working in any field of Japan Studies. Proposals for individual papers or full panels are encouraged. Conference organizers will commission a series of papers specifically related to the conference theme; they would be delighted to receive proposals from individuals interested in preparing an overview presentation related to Japanese innovation in any field.

Inquiries and Paper Proposals can be submitted to:

Dr. Ken Coates, President of the Japan Studies Association of Canada and Dean, Faculty of Arts, University of Waterloo

Proposal Deadline: 31 May 2008

Contact Information:

Email: kcoates@uwaterloo.ca Telephone: 519 888 4567, ext. 32217
Mailing Address: 2008 Japan Studies Association of Canada Conference
Office of the Dean, Faculty of Arts
University of Waterloo
200 University Avenue West
Waterloo, Ontario N2L 3G1

Waterloo, Ontario is located approximately one hour west of the Toronto International Airport and 1 ½ hours by car from Buffalo, New York. The Kitchener-Waterloo Regional Airport has regularly scheduled flights from Detroit, Michigan. Travel and accommodation subsidies may be available for conference presenters.

Call for Papers and Panel Proposals